WHY GERMANS WERE FOR HUGHES

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Endorsement of Charles E. Hughes for president by the New York state branch of the National German-American alliance was due to the belief that he "would be more willing to listen to the German-Americans than his opponents," according to the testimony today of S. G. von Bosse, national president of the alliance, before a senate committee.

Von Bosse said the president of the New York branch gave the reason when Dr. C. J. Hexamer, formerly national president, sought to learn why he was supporting Hughes. Dr. Hexamer, the witness said, took the New York man to task for his alleged participation of party politics.

WORLD'S MARKETS

NEW YORK, March 22.—Moderate pressure against active stocks at the opening of today's market was attributed to the continuance of the German offensive on the western front. War shares reacted the better part of a point and rails yielded as much. In the main, however, losses were largely retrieved by the end of the first half hour, a few important issues then selling over yesterday's final quotations. Liberty bonds were strong.

Dealings indicated greater caution after the early rally, leaders cancelling their gains on small offerings. Reactions among popular equipments averaged a point and in rails, especially Canadian Pacific and coalers, the setback was more extensive. Corn Products was the most active feature of the first hour, though gaining only a slight fraction. The market later lapsed into its recent dullness, trading coming to a standstill at noon.

Liberty 3 1/2's sold at 98.40, first 4's at 96.85 to 97.26 and second 4's at 96.86 to 97.24.

TAYLOR ENJOYS THE FARM BUREAU DAY

Farm Bureau Day was celebrated yesterday afternoon at Taylor. Among the members of the county bureau and other visitors from Ogden were M. P. Brown, county commissioner; D. H. Ensign, county commissioner; Miss Edna Ladwig, county home economics demonstrator; W. P. Thomas, county farm agent; Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Joseph Ririe of the bureau; A. L. Tippetts, county leader of boys' and girls' work. President George A. Taylor of the Taylor bureau and J. F. Hunter, director of the county bureau, were also present.

Speeches were given by Bishop William Jardine, M. P. Brown, Mr. Joseph Ririe, Miss Ladwig, W. P. Thomas, D. H. Ensign and Mr. Tippetts. Esther McFarland, Stephen Hadley, the Hunter sisters and Bertha Edvolsen rendered several musical selections and a dramatic reading was given by Albert Green.

A fine entertainment is promised for the evening to those who attend the play, "Green Stockings," tonight at the Weber academy, which is to be staged by the B. Y. U. dramatic club of Provo.

The director of the play is Miss Edith Barlow, formerly of Ogden and a graduate of Weber college of the class of 1910. She is also a graduate of the University of Utah. Many words of praise have been said for Miss Barlow's play and those who have seen the production say it is finely acted. The stage settings are all that can be desired.

President George H. Brimhall of the B. Y. U. addressed the students of the Weber college this morning.
